

The 12th annual Rachel Carson Trail Challenge, Saturday June 21, 2008, a 34-mile, one-day, endurance hike on the brutal Rachel Carson Trail. Starts in Harrison Hills Park at sunrise, 5:50 AM, and ends in North Park.

You Think You Can Hike?

ONE DAY.
34
MILES.

With These Ups and Downs?

If 34 miles sounds too daunting, we offer two shorter events that same day: The Homestead Challenge, an 18-mile hike from near the Rachel Carson Homestead in Springdale, or chose the 8-mile Family Challenge from Hartwood Acres Park. All events finish in North Park.
